NEW YORK, Nov. 8 .- A Washington special reports the following as President Grant's views on his re-election: His first election he considers as an honor paid to his military services; his second the hattion's approval of his political administration da popular vindication of his personal paracter. Long before the Philadelp Convention be foresaw his success. omination by the coalitionists gratified him in as much as it narrowed the contest o two candidates. Besides the character of the result. He was surprised at the allright received by some Republicans at be Baltimore nomination and he was thereafter urged by political giants to make various changes in his Cabinet. Many of his friends had wondered at his indifference, but one helping cause of that indifference which was known to but few, was his knowledge of the fact that during the campaign the Republican National Committee had a picket in every Greeley camp of any consequence from one end of the country to the other, and knew day by da every phase of the coalition situa-

PRESIDENTIAL. WASHINGTON.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 8 .- Members of the Dipiomatic Corps at noon to-day alled upon the President to tender concratulations. They were received in the due room by the Presiden, Mrs. Grant, Miss Neitie Grant, and the members of the cabinet and the ladies of their households. The foreign ministers each congratulated the President upon his re-election, and afterwards there was a very cordial, social reunion, lasting about half an hour, after which the distinguished company with-The cabinet meeting to day was attended by all the members excepting Belknap and Delano. The interior department was represented by Gen. Cowan. Bureau Howard to Retire on Increased Pay. It is rumored in army circles that Brig. Gen. U. O. Howard will be promoted to the grade of Major General vice Meade, deceased and will be refred immediately with the full grade of Major General on account of long and faithful service and wounds received therein. The retirement of Gen. Howard will still leave a vacancy in the list of Major Generals which will probably be filled by the promotion of Gen.

Cerry or Gen. Canby. The Tall of the Treasury. The Fifth Auditor of the Treasury has made his annual report to the Secretary. He makes no recommendations but reviews the work done in his office showing 15,406 accounts adjusted during the year, involving $720.0716,36. Secretary of War's Report.

The annual report of the Sacretary of War this year is quite brief. He compliments Congress for such complete less in last year's legislation that little room is left Lincoln, candidate for Cong e s from the for legislative recommendations. The Socretary recommends the establishment of many Democratic votes. His administranilitary prisons in place of the present rysem of sending army convicts to State punenthries; also the enactment of a of specific punishments for army offences. Desertions are reported as greatly fallen off the past year. He renews the recommenddion that the extra to each regiment be dispensed with as vacancles occur and thus save a bundred and sixty thousand dollars per annum. He advises raising the intelectual standard of admission at Wes Point; also the sale of a large number of where, the ustab ishment of a general ar
